10. TRESPASS POLICY- ACTION

The Executive Director recommends the Board approve the following Trespass Policy:

I. POLICY

It is the goal of the Dayton Metro Library to maintain a safe, crime free environment for patrons, staff, volunteers, and contractors. Anyone committing a crime on DML property will be served trespass papers and criminally trespassed.

II. DEFINITIONS

Crime: Any act that is against local, state or federal law.

Criminal trespassing: Entering onto or remaining on library property after having been served trespass papers. See ORC 2911.21.

Ban: Request that a patron leave for violating the library’s code of conduct, typically for between 1 and 30 days. This is a request made by library staff or Safety and Protective Services contractors not by police or other officer of the law. See policy PS 313 Problems Involving Patron.

III. REGULATIONS

1. Anyone committing a crime on library property will be served trespass papers and trespassed.
2. Anyone who has been served trespass papers and returns to any library property while trespass is still in effect will be formally charged with criminal trespassing.
3. Questions or concerns about a trespass can be made to the Safety and Protective Services

Director.

IV. PROCEDURES

1. After verifying that a crime has been committed, Safety and Protective Services (SPS) staff will contact police and have trespass papers served to the individual/s committing the crime.
2. Trespassed persons will be trespassed from all DML properties. After one year, they may request to have facility use privileges reinstated. SPS Director will convene a panel to review the request and respond to the patron. Questions and concerns from the trespassed person/s should be directed to the SPS Director.
3. SPS staff will ensure that the individual/s picture is sent to all public services managers.
4. Staff who see a trespassed person on the premise should immediately call DML Dispatch, who will save any recording of the person for verification and contact SPS management for approvals.
5. The SPS Director will convene a panel annually to review patrons that have been trespassed for at least one year to determine which may need to remain trespassed.
6. Staff questions about trespass policy should be directed to the SPS Director.

11. MOU WITH THE FOUNDATION- ACTION

The Executive Director recommends the Board approve the following Memorandum of Understanding with the Dayton Metro Library Foundation.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ("the MOU") is entered into on this ____ day of _____ 2024 by and between the BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the DAYTON METRO LIBRARY ("the Library") and the BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the DAYTON METRO LIBRARY FOUNDATION ("the Foundation").

RECITALS

The Dayton Metro Library is a publicly funded and managed library system pursuant to the laws of the State of Ohio.

The Dayton Metro Library Foundation is an Ohio based non-profit corporation exempt from taxation pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)3.

The Foundation was established in 2014 with a mission to enhance and expand the Dayton Metro Library's mission of Informing, Inspiring, and Empowering the citizens of Dayton and Montgomery County, Ohio.

The Foundation provides financial support through its annual appeal and other fundraising events for the benefit of the Library and its associated PAC Citizens for Good Libraries, which funding supports library collections, services, programs, and facilities.

Both parties desire to enter into this MOU to clearly articulate the roles, responsibilities, and expectations of their relationship and to clarify the services offered by the Library to the Foundation. The parties intend to create a positive and productive working relationship between the Library and the Foundation and to develop guidelines to align priorities, ensure open communication, reporting, and adherence to all applicable local, state, and federal laws.

This MOU articulates a relationship whereby the Foundation prioritizes:

1. alignment with the Library's vision and priorities,
2. acting as ambassador for the Library,
3. connecting the Library with potential donors, and
4. educating the community about the value and impact of philanthropy to the Library.

LIBRARY ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Library Development Office will focus library efforts on the following:

1. corporate/institutional giving,
2. individual giving/major gifts including restricted, unrestricted and endowment gifts, and
3. planned giving.

To these ends, the Library will:

A. Communicate the Library's vision, mission, strategic plan, funding needs and annual priorities.

Annually, the Library will communicate to the Foundation the fundraising targets, goals, priorities, and funding levels of the Library, based on funding needs and the strategic plan, according to the following timeline:

1. January - Annual funding priorities will be communicated to the Foundation at the start of each calendar year at the January Foundation Board Meeting,
2. February - Library Administration will meet with the Foundation Advancement Committee and
 - a. based on funding priorities and the Library's own development activities and targets, the Library will present a fundraising target for the Foundation for the current year,
 - b. the Library will provide suggested strategies for the Foundation to reach the targets including the annual appeal and other activities as identified for the year,
 - c. the Foundation Advancement Committee will select a funding priority from the list provided by the Library and will coordinate all activities with the Library's Development Department.
3. March -The Foundation Advancement Committee will present the target, priority, and strategies for approval by the Foundation Board at the March Foundation Board meeting.

B. Create and share a case statement. The Library will create a 1-2-page Case Statement to be utilized by Library leaders and volunteer ambassadors to encourage philanthropic investments in library projects, programs, and the Library's mission.

C. Establish an annual calendar of events. Library Development staff will establish an annual list of events which clearly identifies opportunities for Foundation participation. These events include but are not limited to:

1. Donor appreciation events
2. Direct Mail appeal letters
3. Annual report distribution
4. Stewardship emails

D. Develop a marketing and communications plan. Library Development staff will provide a marketing and communications plan to be used by the Foundation in any fundraising activities.

E. Acknowledge any support provided by the Foundation. The Library Development staff will acknowledge any Foundation support of the Library in publicity and promotional materials.

F. Provide website and physical space: The Library will:

1. Provide space on the Library website for content provided by the Foundation and/or a link to the Foundation's website from the Library's homepage.
2. Provide meeting rooms to the Foundation in accordance with the Library Meeting Room Policy.

G. Provide staff support: The Library will provide staff support for Foundation activities as available and as determined by the Library. The Library's External Relations and Development Director will serve as a staff liaison to the Foundation and attend all meetings of the Foundation Board as Ex-Officio.

FOUNDATION ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Based on the fundraising targets, goals, priorities, and funding levels communicated by Library staff, the Foundation will:

1. develop and execute bi-annual appeals,
2. participate in all identified Library fund-raising activities,
3. promote library programs, services, and collections, and
4. advocate on behalf of the library.

To these ends, the Foundation will:

- A. In compliance with its bylaws, recruit sufficient Board members to fulfill the Foundation's mission and conduct its activities.
- B. Pay 5% of the Library Development Associate's annual compensation. The Associate's responsibilities shall include facilitating ongoing communications between the Library and the Foundation, attending meetings and programs, providing fundraising support as needed, assisting with the planning, executing, and evaluating all the Foundation's fundraising activities, collectively not to exceed 5% of their time.
- C. Coordinate with the Library in planning any events that take place in support of the Library.
- D. Reimburse the Library for operating expenses relating to Foundation fundraising activities, including but not limited to printing, catering, donor development and management fees, event expenses, postage, etc.
- E. Support the goals and objectives of the Library's mission and strategic plan, as well as the vision, priorities, and policies set forth by the Library Board of Trustees, by being informed advocates for the Library.
- F. Engage in an annual financial audit utilizing the audit firm that provides service to the Library to avoid duplication of audit services. The Foundation will maintain insurance coverage including Directors and Officers liability. The Foundation board of directors will prepare necessary government reports at its own expense, including IRS Form 990, and comply with the Foundation's articles of organization/incorporation, bylaws, and applicable federal and state laws and regulations, including those of the State Corporation Commission.
- G. Acknowledge that the Library has the sole authority to determine whether to accept or decline any gift or donations to the Library.
- H. Manage and maintain all financial records and provide the Library Development Director with a monthly statement on the first of each month that includes all income and expenditures. Income will include all gifts and the statement will include full donor information and donation amount. The Foundation is responsible for providing its' own accounting services.

PROCESS FOR COLLABORATION

The Library and the Foundation will work together to develop and maintain an ongoing collaborative relationship, and together actively seek out opportunities to support and build awareness of the Library and the Foundation in the community. Both parties will engage in an ongoing dialogue to facilitate communication and collaboration.

- A. The Library Board of Trustees will assign one Trustee to serve one-year terms as a liaison to the Foundation Board of Directors ("the Board Liaison"). The Board Liaison and the Library Director (or designate) will serve as non-voting ex-officio members of the Foundation board of directors and may attend meetings and provide updates. The Library Director (or designate) will serve as the liaison to the executive committee and may choose to assign a library liaison to serve on each of the Foundation's committees.

B. The Library Director (or designate) will provide periodic presentations and information sessions to the Foundation.

C. The Library retains full legal authority to pursue its own fundraising opportunities, fundraising partnerships, grants, and gifts that advance the Library's mission, priorities, and goals, in addition to those priorities and gifts addressed by Foundation funding.

D. The Library Development Director will present any Funding request for Foundation funds in writing before the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Foundation Board. Upon approval of a request by the Foundation Board, the Foundation will issue a check within 10 days. Both parties understand that requests from the Library Development Director may constitute advance funding for certain projects and/or may constitute reimbursement for funds already expended by the Library.

E. The Foundation will maintain and share all meeting minutes and agendas with the Library Development Director.

F. The Library Board of Trustees will maintain and share all meeting minutes and agendas with the Foundation.

G. The Foundation President (or designee) may attend Library Board of Trustee meetings and may make comments according to the guidelines established governing public comments.

H. The Library and the Foundation will review this MOU at least annually, or as needed. Either party may request revisions and clarifications in writing.

I. This Memo constitutes the entire understanding between the parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other agreements, oral and/or written, between the parties hereto.
